GOOD FRIDAY

THE SERVICE OF THE CROSS

APRIL 2, 2021
7:00 PM

PRE-SERVICE MEDITATION PSALM 22

- 1) My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?
- 2) O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer,
and by night, but I find no rest.
- 3) Yet you are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel.
- 4) In you our fathers trusted;
they trusted, and you delivered them.
- 5) To you they cried and were rescued;
in you they trusted and were not put to shame.
- 6) But I am a worm and not a man,
scorned by mankind and despised by the people.
- 7) All who see me mock me;
they make mouths at me; they wag their heads;
- 8) "He trusts in the LORD; let him deliver him;
let him rescue him, for he delights in him!"
- 9) Yet you are he who took me from the womb;
you made me trust you at my mother's breasts.
- 10) On you was I cast from my birth, and from my mother's womb you have been my God.
- 11) Be not far from me, for trouble is near,
and there is none to help.
- 12) Many bulls encompass me;
strong bulls of Bashan surround me;
- 13) they open wide their mouths at me,
like a ravening and roaring lion.
- 14) I am poured out like water,
and all my bones are out of joint;
my heart is like wax;
it is melted within my breast;
- 15) my strength is dried up like a potsherd,
and my tongue sticks to my jaws;
you lay me in the dust of death.
- 16) For dogs encompass me;
a company of evildoers encircles me;
they have pierced my hands and feet—
- 17) I can count all my bones—
they stare and gloat over me;
- 18) they divide my garments among them,
and for my clothing they cast lots.
- 19) But you, O LORD, do not be far off!
O you my help, come quickly to my aid!
- 20) Deliver my soul from the sword,
my precious life from the power of the dog!
- 21) Save me from the mouth of the lion!
You have rescued me from the horns of the wild oxen!
- 22) I will tell of your name to my brothers;
in the midst of the congregation I will praise you:
- 23) You who fear the LORD, praise him!
All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him,
and stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel!
- 24) For he has not despised or abhorred
the affliction of the afflicted, and he has not hidden his face from him,
but has heard, when he cried to him.
- 25) From you comes my praise in the great congregation;
my vows I will perform before those who fear him.
- 26) The afflicted shall eat and be satisfied;
those who seek him shall praise the LORD!
May your hearts live forever!
- 27) All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD,
and all the families of the nations shall worship before you.
- 28) For kingship belongs to the LORD,
and he rules over the nations.
- 29) All the prosperous of the earth eat and worship;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust,
even the one who could not keep himself alive.
- 30) Posterity shall serve him;
it shall be told of the Lord to the coming generation;
- 31) they shall come and proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn,
that he has done it.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The minister enters in silence. Remain seated.

THE LESSON - Isaiah 52:13—53:12

Silence for prayer and meditation follows the reading.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

M: God Most Holy, look with mercy on this your family for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, be given over into the hands of the wicked and suffer death upon the cross. Keep us always faithful to him, our only Savior, who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

C: Amen. (spoken)

HYMN 100 A Lamb Goes Uncomplaining Forth

Verse 3 shall be sung by choir member(s).

M: The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John.

John 18:1-19:42

When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples across the brook Kidron, where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples. So Judas, having procured a band of soldiers and some officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, went there with lanterns and torches and weapons. Then Jesus, knowing all that would happen to him, came forward and said to them, "Whom do you seek?" They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am he." Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them. When Jesus said to them, "I am he," they drew back and fell to the ground. So he asked them again, "Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. So, if you seek me, let these men go." This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken: "Of those whom you gave me I have lost not one." Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant and cut off his right ear. (The servant's name was Malchus.) So Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into its sheath; shall I not drink the cup that the Father has given me?"

So the band of soldiers and their captain and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound him. First they led him to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. It was Caiaphas who had advised the Jews that it would be expedient that one man should die for the people.

Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he entered with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, but Peter stood outside at the door. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the servant girl who kept watch at the door, and brought Peter in. The servant girl at the door said to Peter, "You also are not one of this man's disciples, are you?" He said, "I am not." Now the servants and officers had made a charcoal fire, because it was cold, and they were standing and warming themselves. Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

The high priest then questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching. Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret. Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them; they know what I said." When he had said these things, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus with his hand, saying, "Is that how you answer the high priest?" Jesus answered him, "If what I said is wrong, bear witness about the wrong; but if what I said is right, why do you strike me?" Annas then sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. So they said to him, "You also are not one of his disciples, are you?" He denied it and said, "I am not." One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?" Peter again denied it, and at once a rooster crowed.

Then they led Jesus from the house of Caiaphas to the governor's headquarters. It was early morning. They themselves did not enter the governor's headquarters, so that they would not be defiled, but could eat the Passover. So Pilate went outside to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" They answered him, "If this man were not doing evil, we would not have delivered him over to you." Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law." The Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death." This was to fulfill the word that Jesus had spoken to show by what kind of death he was going to die.

So Pilate entered his headquarters again and called Jesus and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this of your own accord, or did others say it to you about me?" Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have been fighting, that I might not be delivered over to the Jews. But my kingdom is not from the world." Then Pilate said to him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice." Pilate said to him, "What is truth?"

After he had said this, he went back outside to the Jews and told them, "I find no guilt in him. But you have a custom that I should release one man for you at the Passover. So do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?" They cried out again, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

Then Pilate took Jesus and flogged him. And the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on his head and arrayed him in a purple robe. They came up to him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and struck him with their hands. Pilate went out again and said to them, "See, I am bringing him out to you that you may know that I find no guilt in him." So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, "Behold the man!" When the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, "Crucify him, crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no guilt in him." The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has made himself the Son of God." When Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid. He entered his headquarters again and said to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. So Pilate said to him, "You will not speak to me? Do you not know that I have authority to release you and authority to crucify you?" Jesus answered him, "You would have no authority over me at all unless it had been given you from above. Therefore he who delivered me over to you has the greater sin."

From then on Pilate sought to release him, but the Jews cried out, "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend. Everyone who makes himself a king opposes Caesar." So when Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Stone Pavement, and in Aramaic Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation of the Passover. It was about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, "Behold your King!" They cried out, "Away with him, away with him, crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar." So he delivered him over to them to be crucified.

The congregation stands at the crucifixion of Jesus and remains standing for the remainder of the reading.

So they took Jesus, and he went out, bearing his own cross, to the place called The Place of a Skull, which in Aramaic is called Golgotha. There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, and Jesus between them. Pilate also wrote an inscription and put it on the cross. It read, "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews." Many of the Jews read this inscription, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Aramaic, in Latin, and in Greek. So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but rather, 'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'" Pilate answered, "What I have written I have written."

When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his garments and divided them into four parts, one part for each soldier; also his tunic. But the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom, so they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it shall be." This was to fulfill the Scripture which says, "They divided my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots."

So the soldiers did these things, but standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home.

After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfill the Scripture), "I thirst." A jar full of sour wine stood there, so they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop branch and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had received the sour wine, he said, "It is finished," and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

Silence for Meditation

Since it was the day of Preparation, and so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water. He who saw it has borne witness—his testimony is true, and he knows that he is telling the truth—that you also may believe. For these things took place that the Scripture might be fulfilled: "Not one of his bones will be broken." And again another Scripture says, "They will look on him whom they have pierced."

After these things Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away his body. Nicodemus also, who earlier had come to Jesus by night, came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds in weight. So they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, since the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

THE BIDDING PRAYER

Elder: Let us pray for the whole church, that our gracious Father would defend her from the devil and keep her faithful to her Lord:

Silent prayer

M: Almighty and everlasting God, you have revealed your saving name to the world through Jesus Christ our Lord. Protect us from assaults of the evil one, and help us remain faithful to your Word so that, in every adversity, we may stand firm in our faith and give ourselves fully to our Savior's work, through Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Elder: Let us pray for those who serve in the public ministry and for all people of God:

Silent prayer

M: Almighty and everlasting God, you rule over all things for the good of your people. Preserve us from divisive spirits and false teachers. Give your servants the grace to proclaim Christ joyfully in word and deed so that all who hear them may come to know their Savior better and be strengthened for their lives of service, through Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Elder: Let us pray for those who are being instructed in the Word that they remain firm in the simple faith of Baptism:

Silent prayer

M: Almighty and everlasting God, you make us your own dear children by the washing of rebirth and renewal of the Holy Spirit. Give strength to all who are buried with Christ in Baptism that each day they may die to sin and rise again to live a new and holy life, through Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Elder: Let us pray for our earthly government, our rulers and all who are in authority:

Silent prayer

M: Almighty and everlasting God, you have established earthly government to keep a measure of order in this dying world and to protect us from the disorder of sin. Give to all rulers the wisdom to govern well and to all citizens the desire to obey them, so that we may live peaceful lives in all godliness and holiness, through Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Elder: Let us pray that our gracious Father would protect us and our communities from the many earthly calamities that threaten us:

Silent prayer

M: Almighty and everlasting God, on all sides we are surrounded by danger from wars and famine, from disease and pestilence, with the devil begrudging us every minute of our lives. Protect us from all these miseries so that your name may still be glorified in them and so that we may safely pass through them to your heavenly kingdom, through Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Elder: Let us pray for those who are outside the Church, that they may come to know the one, true God and Jesus Christ whom he has sent:

Silent prayer

M: Almighty and everlasting God, your Son was lifted up on the cross so that he might draw all people to himself. Through the proclamation of your Word, mercifully gather from the nations a people that are your very own, that we may join together around your throne in glory to praise and thank you forever, through Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Elder: Let us pray for our enemies and for all those who hate us:

Silent prayer

M: Almighty and everlasting God, no one can harm us without grieving you whose name we bear. We ask that you would change the hearts of those who work against us and who hate us without reason. Give them repentance and life so that they may be glad with us and find joy in your love, through Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Elder: Let us pray for all who suffer under cross and trial:

Silent prayer

M: Almighty and everlasting God, you sent your Son into the world to bear our griefs and to carry our sorrows. Help those who are suffering for your name's sake and who are struggling against temptation so that they may not be overwhelmed with sadness but find relief in your grace, through Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Elder: Finally, let us pray for all those things for which our Lord would have us ask in the words he himself has taught us:

HYMN 718Rest, O Christ, from All Your Labor

<https://hymnary.org/hymn/CWS2008/718>

THE REPROACHES

The Reproaches originally reflect the Lord's reproaches of obstinate Israel, cf Micah 6:33ff and Isaiah 5. On this day, the Church hears the voice of Christ as an anguished parent calling his people to repentance for rebellion and unbelief.

M: Thus says the Lord:
What have I done to you, O my people, and wherein have I offended you? Answer me.
For I have raised you up out of the prison of sin and death, and you have delivered up your Redeemer to be scourged.
For I have redeemed you from the house of bondage, and you have nailed your Savior to the cross. O, my people!

Cantor: Holy Lord God, holy and mighty God, holy and most merciful Redeemer, God eternal, leave us not to bitter death. O Lord, have mercy.

Cong:  Lamb of God, pure and ho - ly, who on the cross did suf - fer,

 Ev - er pa-tient and low - ly, your-self to scorn did of - fer.

 All sins you car-ried for us, else had de-spair reigned o'er us:

 Have mer - cy on us, O Je - sus!

M: Thus says the Lord:
What have I done to you, O my people, and wherein have I offended you? Answer me.
For I have conquered all your foes, and you have given me over and delivered me to those who persecute me.
For I have fed you with my Word and refreshed you with living water, and you have given me gall and vinegar to drink. O, my people!

Cantor: Holy Lord God, holy and mighty God, holy and most merciful Redeemer, God eternal, allow us not to lose hope in the face of death and hell. O Lord, have mercy.

Cong:

Lamb of God, pure and ho - ly, who on the cross did suf - fer,

Ev - er pa-tient and low - ly, your-self to scorn did of - fer.

All sins you car-ried for us, else had de-spair reigned o'er us:

Have mer - cy on us, O Je - sus!

M:

Thus says the Lord:

What have I done to you, O my people, and wherein have I offended you? Answer me.

What more could have been done for my vineyard than I have done for it?

When I looked for good grapes, why did it yield only bad?

My people, is this how you thank your God?

My people, is this how you thank your God? O, my people!

Cantor: Holy Lord God, holy and mighty God, holy and most merciful Redeemer, God eternal, keep us steadfast in the true faith. O Lord, have mercy.

Cong:

Lamb of God, pure and ho - ly, who on the cross did suf - fer,

Ev - er pa-tient and low - ly, your-self to scorn did of - fer.

All sins you car-ried for us, else had de-spair reigned o'er us:

Your peace be with us, O Je - sus!
